Greetings Brothers,

May started with visits to several Aeries on the west coast. Anniversary celebrations were scheduled at the Seminole and Pinellas Park Aeries. The food, decorations, and entertainment on Saturday night at Seminole was great. Then on Sunday we had a nice Cinco de Mayo lunch at Pinellas Park. Thanks to both Aeries for your generous donation to the Wolfson Children's Hospital. I also took the opportunity of being in this area to pay visits to the Clearwater and Palm Harbor Aeries. In addition, I went on a little tour of Eagle Village in Bradenton. If you are ever in that area, I recommend you do so as well.

The next weekend I went to the Ocala Forest Aerie who was having a fundraiser on Friday night for Wolfson Children's Hospital. Then off to Port Orange on Saturday for an afternoon anniversary. Thanks to Port Orange for their generous donation to the Wolfson Children's Hospital.

The third weekend in May we paid visits to the New Port Richey, Hudson, Spring Hill, Weeki Watchee and Hall Crest Aeries on Friday. Thanks to Weeki Watchee for the wonderful dinner and generous donation to the Wolfson Children's Hospital. The next day we attended the Youth Rally in Spring Hill. What a hot day that was! Later that afternoon we drove to Brandon to attend the Valrico Aerie's 50th anniversary party. The food, decorations and entertainment were outstanding.

The last weekend in May we were off to South Florida for "Weekend in the Tropics". We started out on Friday night in Oakland Park, then Saturday night in Lake Worth and finished up with a wonderful Sunday Brunch at the All American Aerie in Boynton Beach. Laura and I helped to install the new Auxiliary and Aerie Officers at the All American Aerie on Sunday. Thanks to those Aeries for the hotel room, great food, charity donations and the huge basket of goodies and liquor. I then stayed over another night so that on Monday, I could visit the Ft. Lauderdale Aerie. We had fun visiting with them and playing Bar Poker. We appreciate their donation to the President's Charity as well.

The year has passed quickly, and June will start off with us attending the Georgia State Convention in St. Marys, GA. That will be followed by the Florida State Convention in Altamonte Springs. I hope to see many of you there. After that it will be time for a much-needed rest as this year has kept me busy. But I wouldn't trade it for anything. In the meantime, if there is something you need from me, please reach out. Your State Officers are here to support you. That's all for now, hope to see you soon where Eagles fly.

Fraternally,
Bill Sprigg SWP

From The State Madam President

Sisters

What a month of Adventures! We started out with a weekend of fun celebrating with Seminole & Pinellas Park. We had an AMAZING Chicken dinner on Saturday, great entertainment, friends and of course lots of charity. On Sunday we were treated to a great Taco bar luncheon, laughs & hospitality. Our travels then took us to the East Coast Celebrating with Port Orange. As always the membership and volunteers made it a day to remember. The food, the giveaways, the entertainment and charity donations were very appreciated. We then had a packed day on the 18th as we attended the Youth Fair in Hudson. What an awesome event that Walter, Marlene and their team of volunteers put on for the kids. From the smiles on the kids' faces, the pizza, the horses, and so much more, THANK YOU. I then went that evening to celebrate with Eustis and their membership. Again, amazing food, hospitality and charity. Bill & Ruth "Shannie" Geyer went to Valrico to celebrate their anniversary that night as well. We then traveled to Clearwater to pay our final respects to our PSMP. Barbara Barber. Finally, I just got home from weekend in the Tropics. What a BLAST we had! As always, the food, the entertainment, the charity & the laughs were nothing short of amazing. I was so happy to see our PSMP Margaret Thomas and she is doing very well. Finally, this update is filled with sadness & Joy. As all of our Anniversary Celebrations are complete and this is my final newsletter update. Our Great Big Owl-Some Adventure is almost complete. We have the Georgia State Convention Next weekend and of course our very own State Convention in 2 weeks. I applaud you all as we met our net gain goal in membership. I am so excited for the State Convention for many reasons. I'm excited to celebrate an Owl-Some year, to have a celebratory cocktail with you, to hear our charity totals, and to finally close this chapter in our adventure.

Sisters, I leave you with this, I am always here for you. Anything you need I will always do my best to help. ljds1017@gmail.com. Just because we are closing this chapter doesn't mean we don't open another.

Always remember to Be Kind, Share Your Smiles & Laughter, and Whatever Makes Your Soul Happy, Do That!

All My Love & Respect
